1. The first group of students (Group A) was assigned to the traditional lecture method. They received a 45-minute lecture on the topic of "The Role of the Teacher in the Classroom."

2. The second group of students (Group B) was assigned to the interactive learning method. They participated in a 45-minute interactive session where they discussed and debated the same topic.

3. The third group of students (Group C) was assigned to the self-paced learning method. They were given a 45-minute self-paced learning module on the same topic.

4. The fourth group of students (Group D) was assigned to the blended learning method. They participated in a 45-minute blended learning session that combined a lecture with an interactive activity.

5. The fifth group of students (Group E) was assigned to the flipped classroom method. They watched a 45-minute video lecture on the topic and then participated in a 45-minute interactive session.

6. The sixth group of students (Group F) was assigned to the project-based learning method. They were given a 45-minute project-based learning activity where they worked in groups to complete a project.

7. The seventh group of students (Group G) was assigned to the inquiry-based learning method. They participated in a 45-minute inquiry-based learning session where they explored a topic through a series of questions and answers.

8. The eighth group of students (Group H) was assigned to the case study method. They participated in a 45-minute case study session where they analyzed a real-world case study.

9. The ninth group of students (Group I) was assigned to the role-playing method. They participated in a 45-minute role-playing session where they acted out different roles in a scenario.

10. The tenth group of students (Group J) was assigned to the simulation method. They participated in a 45-minute simulation session where they experienced a real-world situation through a simulation.
